

How to host the IWF/OWNZ Referees Exam

1. Hosting person/club to contact OWNZ Referees Examiner, Garry Marshall ownzsecretary@gmail.com
2. Participants who want to sit the exam must be named and eligibility is checked against the OWNZ membership database to confirm they are paid and registered OWNZ members.
3. Exam study is required as the exam is NOT open book. Links to the IWF questions and answers to the exam can be found on the IWF website under the Resources Tab.
4. Host person/club must confirm the exam date and name the exam supervisor with the OWNZ Referees Examiner.
5. Please note that the supervisor does not need to be a registered OWNZ member or current OWNZ Level 1 referee. They can be a respected person from the local community such as a JP.
6. Hosting person/club has to either:
 - a) print off the exam scripts
 - OR
 - b) ask the Referees Examiner to print and post the scripts for which a charge of $10 for each script will be levied against each participant.
7. Completed exam scripts are to be posted by the supervisor to the OWNZ Referees Examiner for marking. The Referees examiner will provide the supervisor with his postal address when agreement has been reached regarding the date of the exam.
8. Exams will be marked and participants will be notified of their success or failure.
